Safe Harbor Statement

This presentation contains “forward-looking statements” within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 that reflect Atlas Air Worldwide Holdings, Inc.’s (AAWW) current views with respect to certain current and future events and financial performance. Such forward-looking statements are and will be, as the case may be, subject to many risks, uncertainties and factors relating to the operations and business environments of AAWW and its subsidiaries that may cause actual results to be materially different from any future results, express or implied, in such forward-looking statements.

For additional information, we refer you to the risk factors set forth in the documents filed by AAWW with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Other factors and assumptions not identified above are also involved in the preparation of forward-looking statements, and the failure of such other factors and assumptions to be realized may also cause actual results to differ materially from those discussed.

AAWW assumes no obligation to update the statements in this presentation to reflect actual results, changes in assumptions, or changes in other factors affecting such estimates, other than as required by law.

This presentation also includes some non-GAAP financial measures. You can find our presentations on the most directly comparable GAAP financial measures calculated in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States and our reconciliations in our earnings release dated August 3, 2016, which is posted on our Web site at www.atlasair.com.

Amazon Service

Strategic long-term relationship

Supporting fast deliveries for Amazon’s customers

20 B767-300 converted freighters

First Aircraft for Amazon August 2016

10-year dry leases, 7- to 10-year CMI

Amazon granted rights to acquire AAWW equity

- Inherent value creation
- Aligns interests, strengthens long-term relationship

Meaningfully accretive

Agreement provides for future growth opportunities
Amazon Service – Financial Impact

Adjusted EPS and Cash Flow contributions to ramp up as aircraft enter service for Amazon

Net Leverage Ratio to increase initially, then decrease over time
767-300 Financing

Aircraft acquisitions to be funded with secured aircraft financing and future cash generated from operations

Strength of cash flows to enhance financing:

- Positive initial reaction
- Multiple financing avenues
- High LTVs
- Low coupons

By year-end 2018, 20 B767-300 Converted Freighters
Southern Air Acquisition

Strategically Compelling
- Premier provider of intercontinental and domestic CMI services

Highly Complementary
- Expands platform into 777 and 737 operations
- Provides access to broadest array of aircraft and operating services

All-Cash, Debt-Free
- All-cash, debt-free transaction valued at ~$107.5 million
- Completed April 7, 2016

Immediately Accretive
- Immediately accretive to earnings
- Adjusted EBITDA/net income margins in line with AAWW’s
- Anticipated to add ~$100 million in annualized revenues

Foundation for Growth
- Drives greater diversification, scale and global footprint
- Provides solid foundation for additional growth

Atlas is a more diversified and profitable company, offering customers access to the widest range of modern, efficient aircraft

- Implement Amazon service
- Integrate Southern Air
- Realize Continuous Improvement

In other words… Drive Value for Shareholders
1H16 Summary

Income from continuing ops $21.4 million, diluted EPS of $(0.24)
- Reflects impact of warrant accounting and transaction-related expenses

Adjusted income from continuing ops* $27.9 million, adjusted diluted EPS of $1.11
- Southern Air contribution
- Increased military cargo/pax demand
- Slower general commercial cargo
- Crew costs related to fleet growth initiatives
- Initial startup expenses for Amazon 767 service

*See August 3, 2016 press release for Non-GAAP reconciliations.
2016 Framework

Business momentum, 2015 initiatives provide foundation for meaningful earnings and cash flow

Consistent with prior outlook, expect base business growth versus 2015:

- Before expected 2016 impact from Amazon startup expenses/Southern operations and 2015 port-congestion-related earnings

Including startup expenses and warrant impact for Amazon service

- 2016 adjusted EPS expected to be lower than 2015 adjusted EPS of $5.01 by a high-single-digit percentage

Seasonal business, slightly more than three-quarters of earnings generated in second half of the year

Block Hours including Southern Air to increase ~20% over 2015

- About 75% of total in ACMI
- Balance in Charter

Including Southern Air:

- Maintenance expense: ~$200 million
- Depreciation/amortization: ~$145 million
- Tax rate: ~31%
- Core capex: ~$62 to $67 million

See August 3, 2016 press release for Non-GAAP reconciliations
Global Airfreight Drivers

Market Size
- Airfreight share: 1.5-2.5% global volume, 35% global value

Products
- High-value, time-sensitive items; items with short shelf lives

Strategic Choice
- Products/supply chains with just-in-time delivery requirements

Specialty Consideration
- Products with significant security considerations

By Sectors
- Industry Sectors Served by AAWW Customers
  - Automotive: 11%
  - Mail & Express: 6%
  - Pharmaceuticals: 6%
  - Apparel: 10%
  - Perishables: 11%
  - Intermediate Materials: 16%
  - Capital Goods: 17%
  - High-Tech Products: 17%
  - Other: 17%
  - Live: 1%

By Region
- Percent of International Freight Tonne Kilometers (FTKs)
  - Asia Pacific: 40%
  - Europe: 25%
  - North America: 14%
  - Latin America: 16%
  - Africa: 2%
Delivering Value to the General Air Cargo Market

Today
- Largest ACMI / CMI / Charter footprint
- Multiple aircraft platforms
- Expanded our position on five continents

Opportunity
- Continued ACMI / CMI outsourcing by airlines, integrators, forwarders and shippers
- Growth, particularly regarding 777, 767 and 737
- Customer efficiency challenges will drive growth
Delivering Value to the Express Market

Today
- ACMI, CMI and dry-leasing solutions
- Multiple aircraft platforms
- Operating on five continents

Opportunity
- Expanding all products and services
- Increasing fleet count
- Expanding in fast-growing economies
Delivering Value to E-Commerce Market

Today

- ACMI, CMI and dry-leasing solutions
- Multiple aircraft platforms (747, 777, 767, 757, 737)
- Operating on five continents

Opportunity

- Very high growth rate with low penetration
- Large scale expansion opportunity across several aircraft platforms
- Expanding in fast-growing economies
Large Freighter Supply Trends

- Projected production capacity will grow in line with forecast long-term demand growth of ~4%
- Older technology is nearly gone
- MD-11F and 747-400 converted freighter fleets are shrinking
- Large wide-body freighters will continue to dominate the major trade lanes
- Belly capacity cannot displace freighters

Source: Atlas (August 2016), Ascend (July 2016), Boeing (July 2016), company reports. Excludes parked aircraft, aircraft in Express operations, combis and tankers; 747-200F total includes -100s and -300s. Boeing July 2016 777F total includes 43 with express operators (30 with FedEx/TNT, 8 with AeroLogic/DHL, and 5 for DHL Express).
Main Deck to Belly?

Main deck freighters carry well over half of air cargo traffic and are forecast to continue to do so (more reliable schedules, service)

Key Considerations

- 10% shift of Trans-Pac market from main deck to Pax belly requires 50 incremental aircraft
- Limitations on slot and route availability; not enough passenger demand; limited access to aircraft
- Global average capacity availability on a 777-300ER is 18-20 tonnes*
- New Pax 787s fly point-to-point, e.g. London to Phoenix; good for passengers, not cargo

*Considering 28 tonnes max structural cargo capacity available after allocating capacity to bags carried
